ELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

1. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to all proposals, offers and contracts made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, shall govern the entire agreement between the parties for the "TC". They supersede any previous terms and conditions. For the purposes of these terms and conditions, "services" shall include services to be performed by Elsevier for and on behalf of the Client, and "sub-contractor" means any other party, person or entity engaged by Elsevier in the performance of this TC. In order to avoid any additional or consequential loss or damage, you must ensure that you acknowledge these terms, and in particular the limitations of liability, in all correspondence with Elsevier. Elsevier shall not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products. No part of the Elsevier proposals, publications or other Products shall transfer to the Client. Products shall be at the Client’s risk as from delivery. The Client shall make payment to Elsevier for Payment Terms.

2. Offer and acceptance
(1) The TC is not an offer to sell and does not create a binding contract, unless and until Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. All product orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Products. The Products shall be delivered to the location specified by the Client. If the Client cancels an order either fully or partially, a cancellation fee may be charged. All cancellations must be made in writing. The Client shall allow Publisher's authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client's premises (or such of the Client's premises as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date"). Where copy is received late or not at all, Elsevier will endeavour to do so, but cannot guarantee the inclusion of such material. The Client is solely responsible for ensuring proposed advertising copy is received at Elsevier in electronic form (or such of the Client's premises as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date").

3. Execution and modification of the order
(1) Any modifications to the Products and/or services described in the order acknowledgment, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier's discretion. If, on the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional products and services, an additional invoice will be issued. The Client agrees to pay for the additional products and services. In the event of non-payment, Elsevier reserves the right to charge interest and/or take legal action.

4. Cancellations & Returns
(1) If the Client cancels an order either fully or partially, a cancellation fee may be charged. All cancellations must be made in writing. The Client shall allow Publisher's authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client's premises (or such of the Client's premises as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date"). Where copy is received late or not at all, Elsevier will endeavour to do so, but cannot guarantee the inclusion of such material. The Client is solely responsible for ensuring proposed advertising copy is received at Elsevier in electronic form (or such of the Client's premises as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date").

5. Liability and claims
(1) Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to disclose all recipients of the Products or Services. All warranties are non-exclusive and for the purpose expressly agreed upon. Any other warranties shall expire within the provisions of this TC. The Client shall not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products. No part of the Elsevier proposals, publications or other Products shall transfer to the Client. Products shall be at the Client’s risk as from delivery. The Client shall make payment to Elsevier for Payment Terms.

6. Distribution
(1) The Client shall not engage, reproduce, re-display or re-publish the Products or any other products of Elsevier, or sell it directly or indirectly facilitate or assist any party to engage in such activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier of any breach of any privacy, reproduction, display, distribution or re-publication of the products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers in accordance with the prices of the Products or Services as set out on the Elsevier order acknowledgement or invoice. Where general terms and conditions of business are proposed by the Client, these shall apply and the TC shall prevail. Any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorized signature of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

7. Applicability
(1) The Client shall use and accept the Products and Services. The Client shall purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. Any order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or, if Elsevier does not receive written notice of cancellation by the Client, Elsevier shall be deemed to have accepted the order. The Client shall allow Publisher's authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client's premises (or such of the Client's premises as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date").

8. Force majeure
(1) The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier will have the right, at its own discretion, at any time, to change the TC or to suspend or discontinue the provision of the Products or Services. All Sub-contracts shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this TC, which shall remain in full force and effect. Failure or delay by Elsevier in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision (or possessing any benefit) of this TC, shall not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.

9. Force majeure
(1) For the purposes of these terms and conditions, "services" shall include services to be performed by Elsevier for and on behalf of the Client, and "sub-contractor" means any other party, person or entity engaged by Elsevier in the performance of this TC. In order to avoid any additional or consequential loss or damage, you must ensure that you acknowledge these terms, and in particular the limitations of liability, in all correspondence with Elsevier. Elsevier shall not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products. No part of the Elsevier proposals, publications or other Products shall transfer to the Client. Products shall be at the Client’s risk as from delivery. The Client shall make payment to Elsevier for Payment Terms.
