ELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

1. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to all proposals, offers and orders made between Elsevier and any party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties for the TC. These terms supersede any previous terms and conditions proposed by the Client and shall control all orders received by Elsevier from the Client. The Client attests and acknowledges that its management, employees, agents, representatives and principals are so advised and fully understand these terms and conditions. This contract is not assignable without Elsevier’s prior written consent.

2. Offer and acceptance/Description
Every modification in the description of the Products or Services, budget or schedule shall be considered as an additional order and subject to the terms and conditions of this TC, unless agreed otherwise in writing. Upon receipt of the Client’s order acknowledgement, it may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional services to the Client, the additional services shall be considered a new offer and shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this TC.

3. Prices and taxation
Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the prices for the Products and Services shall be in accordance with Elsevier’s current price list (whether printed or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall be exclusive of any taxes, duties or other levies imposed on the sale or provision of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as appropriate. Where applicable, Elsevier shall provide to Elsevier’s VAT registration number or other tax identification number in connection therewith.

4. Payment
Payment does not include a payment of reasonable and bona fide expenditures, such as travel or lodging expenses, which are incurred in connection with the execution or performance of a contract provided that such payments are permissible under the Applicable Laws and subject to approval by the service of the Products or the execution or performance of a contract provided that such payments are permissible under the Applicable Laws. All payments shall be made without set-off and in accordance with the Applicable Laws. When an order for a series of advertisements is placed, payment is due on the date of insertion. Where an order is placed for a series of advertisements, payment shall be due on the date of insertion and a late fee of 5% per annum shall be charged on any overdue amount. Orders may be subject to a minimum charge and/or handling charge. Payment for the Products and Services shall be rendered within the time limit specified by Elsevier in its order acknowledgement. Where payment is not received within the time limit specified by Elsevier, Elsevier reserves the right to stop all further manufacture and delivery and to recover payment for the copies of the Product notwithstanding that ownership of any of the copies of the Product has not passed from Elsevier.

5. Distribution
If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other action of the elements, or other causes beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is unable to perform.

6. Delivery
The Client shall allow Publisher’s authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client’s premises (or similar premises) for the purpose of inspecting Client’s facilities, books and records to verify Client’s compliance with the TC.

7. Intellectual property
Copyright in and other property rights in any title appearing in the Product or Services, whether fixed or in manuscript form, shall vest in Elsevier. Title to any other material, other than the Product or Services, shall vest in the original owner thereof. Elsevier shall be authorized to use the Client’s name and the name of any of its authors, directors, officers or employees in connection with the TC without obtaining the Client’s consent.

8. Warranty
Elsevier warrants that, to the best of its knowledge, it is not aware of any defect in design, manufacture or performance which might make the Product or Services useless or which might render the Product or Services dangerous. Elsevier further warrants that it is not aware of any defect in the design, manufacture or performance of a Product or Service which might result in damage to the property or person of any person or entity.

9. Force majeure
If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other action of the elements, or other causes beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is unable to perform.

10. Confidentiality
The Client shall not disclose to any third party the terms and conditions of this TC or any information received from Elsevier in connection with the purchase of the Products or Services, except as required by law or in connection with the Client’s normal course of business and without the prior written consent of Elsevier.

11. Audit
If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other action of the elements, accidents, power or telecommunications failure, customs delay, governmental restrictions or appropriation or other causes beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is unable to perform.

12. Compliance
Each party shall comply with all laws, rules and regulations applicable to the performance of this TC.

13. Governing law
The Client’s obligation to make payments to Elsevier under clause 5. shall be subject to the laws of the jurisdiction in which Elsevier is located. Elsevier reserves the right to withhold supply of the Products or Services for periods longer than one year. Where an order for a series of advertisements is placed, payment is due on the date of insertion and a late fee of 5% per annum shall be charged on any overdue amount. Orders may be subject to a minimum charge and/or handling charge. Payment for the Products and Services shall be rendered within the time limit specified by Elsevier in its order acknowledgement. Where payment is not received within the time limit specified by Elsevier, Elsevier reserves the right to stop all further manufacture and delivery and to recover payment for the copies of the Product notwithstanding that ownership of any of the copies of the Product has not passed from Elsevier.

14. Service of process
If any dispute arises out of or relating to the TC, then the parties hereto consent to the jurisdiction of any court, tribunal or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid, void, unenforceable or in any manner whatsoever rendered unenforceable.

15. Limitation of liability
Nothing in the TC shall be construed as creating an obligation to indemnify the other party against the other party’s own negligence. Elsevier’s liability for any other loss imputable to it shall in any event be limited to the invoice value of the Part of the TC which is held to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid, void, unenforceable or in any manner whatsoever rendered unenforceable.

16. Venue
If any dispute arises out of or relating to the TC, then the parties hereto consent to the jurisdiction of any court, tribunal or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid, void, unenforceable or in any manner whatsoever rendered unenforceable.
