Journal of Clinical Lipidology

Overview

The Journal of Clinical Lipidology is published to support the diverse array of medical professionals who work to reduce the incidence of morbidity and mortality from dyslipidemia and associated disorders of lipid metabolism. The journal's readership encompasses a broad cross-section of the medical community, including cardiologists, endocrinologists, and primary care physicians, as well as those involved in the treatment of such disorders as diabetes, hypertension, and obesity. The journal also addresses allied health professionals who treat the patient base described above, such as pharmacists, nurse practitioners and dietitians.

EELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

1. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to all purchases, proposals and agreements made by and between one party ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, unless otherwise agreed in writing, shall be subject to the application of any mandatory law or interpretation or any decision by any court or government agency; (3) are the subject of a claim asserted by an entity with respect to its trademarks, trade names, trade dress or service marks.

2. Liability and Claims
The Client shall have the right to cancel the order for that advertisement, if the alterations requested are unacceptable, unless such changes result solely from the Client's failure to supply accurate, complete or timely information.

3. Execution and modification of the order
Any modifications or changes made by the Client or the Client's agent shall not be binding on Elsevier unless written confirmation of such changes is received by Elsevier and agreed to by both parties in writing.

4. Distribution
Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, the Client shall be responsible for the timely delivery and safe delivery of the products to the Client's customers in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

5. Prices, taxes and currency
Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, the Client shall be responsible for all taxes, duties and other levies imposed on the sale or export of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as appropriate. Where applicable, Elsevier shall provide to Elsevier the VAT registration number or other information that Elsevier may require in order to comply with any mandatory law.

6. Client rights
The Client shall be entitled to refuse the style of published material and shall be entitled to reject any order for reprints of material that has not been published.

7. Force majeure
If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other action of the elements, or appropriation or other causes beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is unable to perform. The party subject to an event of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to comply as closely as possible with its obligations and shall promptly notify the other party of any delay or reduction of its services.

8. Audit
Client shall allow Publisher's authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client's premises (or any other place where the Products are kept in the Client's possession) for the purpose of inspecting Client's facilities, books and records to verify Client's compliance with the TC.

9. Effective date
The terms of this Agreement shall become effective immediately upon the Client's acceptance of this Agreement and shall continue in full force and effect until terminated or modified in accordance with the terms hereof.

10. Termination
Either party may terminate this Agreement if the other party shall have committed a material breach of any of its obligations hereunder, or if any of its obligations hereunder shall be delayed.

11. Auditing
The Client agrees that they are responsible for ensuring that all products or services of Elsevier are used in accordance with any mandatory law or interpretation or any decision by any court or government agency.

12. Delivery
All communications and notices required or permitted hereunder shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been served when sent by registered mail, or by any electronic means acceptable to Elsevier.

13. Payment
If any invoice is not paid to Elsevier within the due date, interest at the rate of 1% may be charged to the Client on a monthly basis for any sums outstanding, together with any collection fees incurred by Elsevier.

14. Confidentiality
Both parties shall keep confidential all information disclosed by the other party in connection with the implementation of this Agreement, and shall not disclose such information to any third party without the prior written consent of the other party.

15. Entire agreement
This Agreement, including all schedules and Exhibits, supersedes any and all previous communications, discussions, negotiations, agreements, understandings and representations between the parties and constitutes the entire agreement between the parties.

16. Governing law
This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction in which Elsevier has its principal place of business.

17. Dispute resolution
Any disputes arising under or in connection with this Agreement shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the Rules of the International Chamber of Commerce, which shall be held in New York, New York, United States.
