Neuromuscular Disorders

Overview

This international, multidisciplinary journal covers all aspects of neuromuscular disorders in childhood and adult life (including the muscular dystrophies, spinal muscular atrophies, hereditary neuropathies, congenital myopathies, myasthenias, myotonic syndromes, metabolic myopathies and inflammatory myopathies).

The Editors welcome original articles from all areas of the field:

- Clinical aspects, such as new clinical entities, case studies of interest, treatment, management and rehabilitation (including biomechanics, orthotic design and surgery).
- Basic scientific studies of relevance to the clinical syndromes, including advances in the fields of molecular biology and genetics.
- Studies of animal models relevant to the human diseases.

The journal is aimed at a wide range of clinicians, pathologists, associated paramedical professionals and clinical and basic scientists with an interest in the study of neuromuscular disorders.

In addition to original research papers, the journal also publishes reviews and mini-reviews, preliminary short communications and book reviews, and has editorial, correspondence and news sections. Reports on congresses and workshops, taking the form of a digested or very comprehensive commentary, pointing out some of the particular highlights in relation to the contributors and giving some detail of the area covered, important contributions and a list of participants, are also welcome.

The journal is published bi-monthly and aims at rapid publication of high quality papers of scientific merit as well as general interest to a wide readership. There is also a fast track for rapid publication of new material of outstanding scientific merit and importance.

Neuromuscular Disorders is the official journal of the World Muscle Society an international, multidisciplinary, scientific society, dedicated to the advancement and dissemination of knowledge in the field of neuromuscular disorders.

ELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

1. Applicability
   - These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent(s) (“the Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire understanding between the parties for that TC. These terms supplant any previous understandings between the parties for that TC. For the purposes of this TC, “Products or Services” as used in this TC shall mean the products or services set out in the order acknowledged or the order acknowledged as amended, to the extent of such amendment, or unless otherwise specified and agreed in writing by Elsevier and the Client. In a case of any ambiguity between these terms and conditions and the order acknowledged, it may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If at the request of the Client, Elsevier redresses additional costs, such as media insertion costs, Elsevier shall invoice these additional costs to the Client, which shall be payable in addition to the price already specified in the order acknowledged. In respect of any offer and acceptance (or offer and acceptance/bid) and of the order acknowledged, any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall be effective only upon agreed writing and signed by an authorized signature of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

2. Offer and acceptance/Description
   - Descriptions of the Products and Services will be made by Elsevier from time to time for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services. Such descriptions will be accurate to the best knowledge and belief of Elsevier at the time of their preparation. No such description shall be taken to be part of the order acknowledged, and any such description, together with any other description of the Products and Services supplied by Elsevier, shall not be taken to affect the validity of the order acknowledged or the interpretation or enforcement of the terms agreed therein. The Client acknowledges and agrees that these terms and conditions and the order acknowledged are the entire understanding between the parties and, with the exception of the payment terms, shall supersede all previous negotiations and agreements.

3. Cancellation and Return
   - If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other similar causes beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part the order acknowledged, such party will be excused from the performance of such part of such order, and the remainder of such order will be continued in full force and effect. Failure or delay by Elsevier in enforcing or performing any of its rights shall not operate as a waiver, and, unless otherwise specifically agreed to in writing, no course of dealing between the parties shall result in a modification of any of the terms of the order acknowledged.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies
   - Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, the prices for the Products and Services shall be in the Client’s current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, transport insurance and charging charges otherwise waived in writing, and shall be exclusive of any import duties, sales tax, value-added tax or other taxes imposed by any authority or government. If an applicable change in tax rates occurs after the date of delivery, the Client will pay the increased amount to Elsevier. If the price of the Products and/or Services is not specified, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge the Client the current price list (whether print or online) in effect at the time of delivery, which will be determined by Elsevier at its own discretion.

5. Pricing in Writing
   - All prices shall be in writing and shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, transport insurance and charging charges otherwise waived in writing, and shall be exclusive of any import duties, sales tax, value-added tax or other taxes imposed by any authority or government. If a change in tax rates occurs after the date of delivery, the Client will pay the increased amount to Elsevier. If the price of the Products and/or Services is not specified, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge the Client the current price list (whether print or online) in effect at the time of delivery, which will be determined by Elsevier at its own discretion.

6. Distribution
   - The Client shall not assign, delegate, sub-contract, assign, lease, transfer, sell, or dispose of all or any part of the Products and/or Services without Elsevier’s prior written consent. Any such transfer, sale, or disposal will be subject to a royalty, fee, or other consideration as agreed upon by Elsevier and the Client. If the Client assigns, transfers, sells, or otherwise disposes of all or any part of the Products and/or Services to a third party, the Client will continue to be liable for all obligations as if it were the original Client.

7. General
   - These terms and conditions are subject to amendment or modification by Elsevier in its own discretion, and any such amendment or modification shall be effective upon delivery by Elsevier to the Client.

Compliance

- Compliance with law
  - A Client at all times during the term of any agreement shall observe all applicable laws, ordinances, codes, regulations, standards and judicial and administrative orders ("Applicable Law" or "Law") relevant to its duties, obligations and performance under this Agreement, including, without limitation, the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, as amended, and the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council ("GDPR"), and all other applicable laws, regulations and codes that may from time to time be in force in a Client’s jurisdiction. Elsevier is entitled to share any personal data for the purposes of this TC and for the purposes of any related or ancillary agreements, contracts, or orders, as specified in the order acknowledged or the order acknowledged as amended, to the extent of such amendment.

Audit

- Audit shall allow Elsevier’s authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to the Client’s premises or records to verify that the Client is in compliance with the TC. Elsevier shall provide written notice to the Client prior to any audits or inspections. The Client shall cooperate in all audits or inspections and grant Elsevier’s authorized representative access to the Client’s premises or records for the purpose of conducting such audits or inspections. If the Client fails to permit Elsevier’s authorized representative to have access to the Client’s premises or records, Elsevier shall have the right to perform the audit through an independent third-party auditor, and the Client shall pay Elsevier the costs associated with such independent third-party auditor.
