Overview

Lung Cancer is an international publication covering the clinical, translational and basic science of malignancies of the lung and chest region.

Original research articles, early reports, review articles and editorials covering the prevention, epidemiology and etiology, basic biology, pathology, clinical assessment, surgery, chemotherapy, radiotherapy, combined treatment modalities, other treatment modalities and outcomes of lung cancer are all welcome. Letters to the journals are also welcomed although authors should be aware that the majority will be published online only. Early reports should briefly describe the initial results of a research topic and will be expedited through peer-review.

Manuscripts describing studies on cell lines will only be considered if the data compares at least two types of distinct cell lines and the results have general implications on the understanding of the biology of chest tumours. Authors of studies on cell lines must also agree to make freely available to other researchers any of the cells, clones of cells, or DNA or antibodies, etc, that were used in the research reported and that are not available from commercial suppliers.

1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to offers, proposals, made and any order or agreement ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgment, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions of sale or supply of the Products and Services as set out in the Elsevier order acknowledgement. Where general terms and conditions of business are proposed by the Client, these shall not apply and the TC shall prevail. Any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorised party of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier's Liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

Where Products are delivered to the Client, the Client shall be responsible for the third party product or service e.g. where the service may be subject to additional terms and conditions.

8. Liability and claims

The Client shall at all times during the term strictly comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, codes, regulations, and generally prevailing custom and practice. The Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any breach of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to terminate the TC and shall be entitled to recover payment for the copies of the Product notwithstanding that ownership of any of the copies of the Product has not passed to the Client. Products shall be at the Client's risk as from delivery. The Client shall make all payments due under the TC by the method of payment agreed by Elsevier, in advance of the delivery of the Product or on delivery of the Product as the case may be. Payment shall be made free of all taxes or levies imposed by any national, state or local government. Unless the Client is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified individual subscriber for self-funded use.

10. Advertising & Reprints

The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations. The Client shall make all payments due under the TC by the method of payment agreed by Elsevier, in advance of the delivery of the Product or on delivery of the Product as the case may be. Payment shall be made free of all taxes or levies imposed by any national, state or local government. Unless the Client is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified individual subscriber for self-funded use.

14. General

eTOC Metrics: 12 Month Average of eTOC sends - July 2022 to June 2023

1. Applicability

The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that same corporate domicile. The Client acknowledges that the Liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the Client's liability will be limited to the extent of the maximum limit, as set out in the TC. Advertisements included in the Products may be subject to alterations by Elsevier without notice to the Client. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier.

2. The Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Unless the Client is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified individual subscriber for self-funded use.
