Overview

Leukemia Research is an international journal which brings comprehensive and current information to all health care professionals involved in basic and (or) applied clinical research in leukemias, lymphomas, multiple myeloma and other hematologic malignancies. The editors encourage the submission of articles relevant to normal and leukemic hemopoiesis, biochemistry, cell biology, immunology and molecular biology as well as epidemiologic and clinical studies. Specifically, of major interest will be articles that encompass the application of oncogenes, growth factors, cell markers, cell cycle and differentiation agents, novel therapeutics and clinical trials in both the acute and chronic leukemias as well as the myelodysplastic syndromes. In addition we solicit selected articles on the rapidly increasing specialty of marrow or stem cell reconstitution after high dose therapy with curative attempt in patients with a wide range of neoplasms.

2. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or by its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgment, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, Elsevier means the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out in the TC. The Product or Service means any type of article, research output, database, software, content, or service offered by Elsevier. The word "products" shall mean "products and services". "The Client" means the party or entity to whom the Products or Services are to be supplied. All rights granted by Elsevier shall be exercised internationally (such as in relation to the use of the B redesigned logo and logo mark in the United States and France and the RSCPC and the BRACAO logo in the United Kingdom and the BRACAO logo in the EU and the BRACAO logo in the UK) and those enforced in the country where business is being conducted and/or the Client’s place of business or residency. Client and its employees, agents and representatives shall not be entitled to use or reproduce any logo or other marking, or logo mark, or to use any such logo or logo mark in any manner whatsoever, except with the prior written authorization of Elsevier.

3. Prices, taxes and currencies
Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use.

5. Payment
Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency nominated. Time for payment of the invoice shall be the essence. Elsevier may set any other limit or limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and beneficial title in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until Elsevier has received in full (net of claimed discounts) all sums due to it in respect of the Products and all other sums which are or which become due to Elsevier from the Client on account.

10. Audit
Elsevier shall have the right to verify Client’s compliance with the TC. Elsevier may at any time require the Client to produce relevant books and records and other evidence, either during or after the termination of the TC, to verify Client’s compliance with the TC. Elsevier may not be held liable for any loss, damage or expense incurred by the Client in connection with the Client’s efforts to verify Client’s compliance with the TC.

11. Audit
The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of that same corporate domicile. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Ordering for the purposes of this agreement shall mean placing an order for any Product or Service with Elsevier which will be accepted by Elsevier. Any of the provisions of the TC is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the balance shall be, and remains, valid and enforceable. The provisions of the TC shall be interpreted in accordance with their terms and will not be construed in such a manner as to nullify or render invalid any other provision of the TC.

3. Prices, taxes and currencies
Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreplaceable harm to Elsevier. Upon violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to discontinue all receipts of Products or Services from Elsevier, including all actual receipts that have not been previously properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the provisions of the TC and agreement by both the parties, including such things as format, printing, design, technical design, size and kind of address file, weights and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures are issued as published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design character of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for repudiation by either party, as the case may be, of the then-pending order.

11. Audit
Audit or the formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of that same corporate domicile. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Any of the provisions of the TC is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the balance shall be, and remains, valid and enforceable. The provisions of the TC shall be interpreted in accordance with their terms and will not be construed in such a manner as to nullify or render invalid any other provision of the TC.
