1. Applicability. These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it to any party, except with the prior written consent of Elsevier. The TC and any assignments thereof shall be binding on and inure to the benefit of both the Client and Elsevier.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description. Each order for the products and/or services specified in the TC shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier (or, if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. All orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by Elsevier, it is agreed that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Client acknowledges that validation of this representation and warranty will cause irrevocable harm to Elsevier. Upon the receipt of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to disclose all recipients of Products and Services from Elsevier, including all actual recipients that have not previously been properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall utilize commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the directions of the Products and Services agreed by both parties in the relevant order, including such things as formatting, printing processes, technical design, size and kind of address file, weights and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures are issued or published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for returning any goods, as the case may be, nor for the payment of any money.

3. Price, taxes and currency. Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the prices for the Products and Services shall be as set out in Elsevier’s current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall also be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other fees imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as applicable. Where applicable, Client shall provide to Elsevier Client’s VAT registration number or other evidence of tax exemption at Elsevier to the effect of its payment of tax. If, under the laws of the territory in which Client is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on the payment of payment by Elsevier, the Client shall make such tax payment. The Client will also be reimbursed by Elsevier in the amount of taxes so withheld, provided the Client supplies a receipt of payment of these taxes to the appropriate taxing authority. All financial transactions must be settled in the currency of the applicable Elsevier invoice. The Client will be solely responsible for its own cost for completing any foreign-exchange-related procedures in the said territory that are necessary to settle the transaction.

4. Payment. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency stated. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier may set any credit limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and beneficial title in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until Elsevier has received in full (net of cleared funds) all sums due to it in respect of the Products and all other sums which are or which become due to Elsevier from the Client on account. The Client may only be entitled to purchase the needed products. If the Client decides to dispute any invoice or payment, the Client shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, but not later than the due date of such invoice, send full details of such dispute to Elsevier in writing. The Client shall remain liable for full payment of the invoice while the dispute is investigated. Elsevier reserves the right to terminate the TC if the Client’s total dispute is not settled within twenty-eight (28) days from the date of the written notice of dispute. If the Client has any claim against a third party arising out of any goods or services supplied by Elsevier under any other order, Elsevier reserves the right to withhold supply of the Products or Services under the current order until any outstanding amounts are fully paid. Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any monies received by the Client, to clear any of the Client’s outstanding debts to Elsevier.

5. Advertising & Reprints. The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full credit control and solely bearing all of its own losses from any uncollected amounts. Delay or failure in obtaining such payments will not affect the Client’s obligation to make payments to Elsevier under the TC.

6. Intellectual property. Copyright and other intellectual property rights to the Products, Elsevier proposals, publications and other Services or Services shall remain with Elsevier unless otherwise agreed in writing. The rights granted by Elsevier are restricted to use solely by the Client and may not be assigned, transferred or sublicensed without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The rights granted by Elsevier are non-exclusive and for the purpose expressly agreed upon. Any other use shall require the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client shall not acquire any intellectual property interest in the Products. No part of the Elsevier proposals, publications or Products may be stored in any automated data base and/or reproduced, whether electronically, mechanically, by photostatting, recording or in any other manner or forms, without the specific prior written permission of Elsevier.

7. Liability and claims. (a) Elsevier shall not be liable for any of the following losses which arise by reason of any breach of this TC or any implied warranty, condition or other term, any representation or any duty of any kind, which is imposed on Elsevier by operation of law: (i) any loss of anticipated profits or expected future business; (ii) damage to reputation or goodwill; (iii) any damages, costs or expenses payable by Elsevier to any third party; (iv) loss of any kind or other data, documents, discount, statement or other benefit unless Elsevier has a valid court order requiring an amount equal to such deduction to be paid to the Client from the Client. From the due date of the invoice to the date of payment in full, interest at the rate of 5% may be charged to the Client on any amounts outstanding. Any alterations, additions or deletions to the TC may be made by Elsevier at any time and without any prior written notice to the Client. All such changes shall be final and binding. No such changes shall affect any terms of the TC and the remainder of the TC shall continue in full force and effect. If any provision of the TC is found by a court, tribunal or government agency to be illegal, void or unenforceable, it shall be deemed severable and the remainder of the TC shall continue in full force and effect. If any provision of the TC is found by a court, tribunal or government agency to be illegal, void or unenforceable, it shall be deemed severable and the remainder of the TC shall continue in full force and effect. If any provision of the TC is found by a court, tribunal or government agency to be illegal, void or unenforceable, it shall be deemed severable and the remainder of the TC shall continue in full force and effect. If any provision of the TC is found by a court, tribunal or government agency to be illegal, void or unenforceable, it shall be deemed severable and the remainder of the TC shall continue in full force and effect.

8. Force majeure. Subject to the limitations on liability set out below in Section 9, Elsevier shall not be liable for non-performance if the Products or Services cannot be supplied because of any cause beyond its control and reasonable efforts to meet the contract have been made. Causes beyond Elsevier’s control include, but are not limited to, acts of God, civil disturbances, strikes, lockouts or other labor difficulties, government actions, wars, terrorist acts, epidemics, breakdowns in transportation facilities, delays in delivery, or any other causes of action, including reasonable legal fees and expenses incurred by Elsevier, arising out of or relating to the Advertising Content or Client’s breach or alleged breach of any of the foregoing representations and warranties. Elsevier reserves the right, at any time, to remove any content which is in violation of the TC. Elsevier shall not be liable for any additional expense incurred by the Client for the removal of such content unless the Client directed Elsevier to do so by any law enforcement agency, court or government agency; (a) in the event of a claim asserted by an entity alleging a violation of any intellectual property rights or (4) are otherwise objectionable to Elsevier. In such event, Elsevier may either (i) modify, adapt, translate or otherwise change the content, including the date, time or place of such event. Except as specifically agreed in writing, elsevier shall have no obligation to indemnify the Client against the Client’s own actions.
