2. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (“the Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (“the TC”).

1. Applicability

1.1 This TC shall supersede any previously existing terms and conditions of supply. For the purposes of the TC, Elsevier shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out on the date of supply. The expression “Terms and Conditions of Supply” or “TC” and any other term of similar import shall be construed accordingly. Unless otherwise expressly agreed, Elsevier shall mean Elsevier Publishing Company or Elsevier New York only.

2. Cancellations & Returns

2.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, if a Client is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of performance and such inability to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The party subject to an event of force majeure shall not be liable for the delay in performance caused thereby.

3. Distribution

3.1 The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client shall be solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full control and securing all of its losses from any uncollected amounts. Delay or failure in obtaining such payments will not affect the Client’s obligation to make payments to Elsevier under this TC.

5. Payment

5.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency and by the methods agreed at the time of order. The Client shall notify Elsevier of any change in payment terms and conditions. Payment is due on or prior to the agreed due date. If payment is not received within the agreed due date, Elsevier may charge interest on the unpaid amount and any related costs incurred by Elsevier. Failure to make payments on a timely basis may result in the delay of the issuance of future invoices.

6. Force majeure

6.1 Force majeure events include but are not limited to any act of God, war, government regulation or action, riot, fire, flood, failure of common carriers, labor disputes, or any other causes beyond the reasonable control of the party affected. Where an event of force majeure prevents or delays performance, the party shall give written notice of the event and its expected duration to Elsevier as soon as practicable. Elsevier shall have the right to suspend or cancel the TC without liability or obligation to the Client, and the Client shall give Elsevier such information and assistance as Elsevier may reasonably require in order to facilitate performance. In such cases, the TC shall be automatically extended for the period of the suspension or delay, but only to the extent caused by the force majeure event.

7. General

7.1 This TC is subject to English law and the English courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction in respect of the same. Any dispute or claim arising from or relating to this TC or its subject matter or formation shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

9. Force majeure

This TC is subject to English law and the English courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction in respect of the same. Any dispute or claim arising from or relating to this TC or its subject matter or formation shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
