The Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to disclose all recipients of the Products or Services and all other information reasonably necessary to bring an action for relief against such persons. The Client shall provide Elsevier with a statement to the effect that no representation or warranty contained in this TC is or will be breached.

2. Payment

2.1. Payment Terms: Payment for the Products and Services shall be made on terms and on a form acceptable to Elsevier. Payment is due in accordance with the agreed payment terms and conditions. All amounts due and outstanding shall bear interest at the rate of 1% per month or the maximum rate permitted under applicable law, whichever is lower. If any sums are outstanding for 30 days or more, interest will continue to accrue at the same rate. All sums outstanding for 90 days or more will be subject to interest at the rate of 1% per month or the maximum rate permitted under applicable law, whichever is lower. If any sums are outstanding for 180 days or more, Elsevier may institute legal action to recover such amounts.

Elsevier shall be entitled to recover payment for the cost of the Products on which the representation and warranty are not true or complete. Elsevier may also terminate this TC at any time if the Client fails to cure any breach of this TC by Client. Orders must specify a definite schedule of insertions, issues and sizes of space for a specified period of time. Orders containing the word "series" shall be treated as multiple orders placed for multiple insertion dates in the same issue. Orders specifying a "series" that are not consistent with Elsevier's standards. In addition, Elsevier shall have the right, at any time, to remove any or all Advertising Content from any page of the Products or Services until such time as such Advertising Content is no longer approved by the Client. Elsevier shall be entitled to remove any or all Advertising Content from the Products or Services in the event that the Client is not in compliance with any of the representations and warranties set forth in this TC or any applicable law, rule, regulation or industry code.
