Overview

The Journal of Tissue Viability is the official publication of the Tissue Viability Society and is a quarterly journal concerned with all aspects of the occurrence and treatment of wounds, ulcers and pressure sores including patient care, pain, nutrition, wound healing, research, prevention, mobility, social problems and management. The journal particularly encourages papers covering skin and skin wounds but will consider articles that discuss injury in any tissue. Articles that stress the multi-professional nature of tissue viability are especially welcome. We seek to encourage new authors as well as well-established contributors to the field - one aim of the journal is to enable all participants in tissue viability to share information with colleagues.

2.applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). The Client shall acknowledge its acceptance of these terms and conditions by signing and countersigning the TC and attaching the approved order form to it. The Client acknowledges that by placing an order for the TC and attaching the approved order form to it, the Client accepts these terms and conditions and agrees to be bound by them.

2. offer and acceptance/ description Each order for the Products and Services from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by Elsevier, the Client acknowledges that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identifiable individual subscriber for personal use. Personal acknowledgment that validation of this representation and warranty will cause invalidity to Elsevier. Upon violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to discontinue all recipients of Products and Services from Elsevier, including all actual recipients that have not previously properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the terms and conditions agreed by both parties in the relevant order, including such things as formatting, printing, technical, design and size of address label, weights and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures are issued as published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejection of the order, as the case may be, unless the error prejudices the price.

3. The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that same corporate domicile. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client shall not assign the TC or any part of it to any person, firm or company. If any provision of the TC is found by any court, tribunal or other body of competent jurisdiction to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid, void, voidable, unenforceable or unreasonable be deemed severable and the remaining provisions of the TC shall remain in full force and effect.

4. If the Client cancels an order either fully or partially, a cancellation fee may be charged. All cancellations must be made in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s liability for fraudulent misrepresentation. Where Products are sold to the Client that contain third party software or content such a sale may be subject to additional licence terms.

5. Force majeure No party shall be liable for any loss or delay in the performance of their obligations under the TC as a result of any event or condition beyond the party’s reasonable control (“force majeure”). The Client shall not sell, rent, lease, assign, sublease, sublicense, transfer or otherwise dispose of the Products or Services to any third party unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.
