Overview

The Journal of Tissue Viability is the official publication of the Tissue Viability Society and is a quarterly journal concerned with all aspects of the occurrence and treatment of wounds, ulcers and pressure sores including patient care, pain, nutrition, wound healing, research, prevention, mobility, social problems and management. The Journal particularly encourages papers covering skin and skin wounds but will consider articles that discuss injury in any tissue. Articles that stress the multi-professional nature of tissue viability are especially welcome. We seek to encourage new authors as well as well-established contributors to the field - one aim of the journal is to enable all participants in tissue viability to share information with colleagues.

1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent [the “Client”] relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (“the TC”). The Client shall acknowledge and accept these terms and conditions by its written order acknowledgement, unless otherwise agreed to in writing, in which case the written order acknowledgement shall substitute for these terms and conditions.

2. Liability and claims

The Client acknowledges that no liability or warranty is implied by Elsevier in purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identifiable individual subscriber for personal use.

3. Offer and acceptance

Each order for the Products and/or Services shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. All Client orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by Elsevier, it is the responsibility of the Client that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identifiable individual subscriber for personal use.

4. Payment

Upon delivery of the Products or/and by receipt of the invoice, the Client undertakes to pay to Elsevier the full amount of the price. The Client shall be responsible for payment of the invoice in full within the due date specified on the invoice. Invoices are payable net of any applicable Sales, Value Added and/or similar sales taxes and duties, unless applicable VAT registration number or other evidence of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing its order. If, under the laws of the territory in which Client is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on an amount payable to Elsevier under the TC, the Client shall be entitled to deduct such tax and will remit the tax to Elsevier as required by law. The Client shall, within 30 days from the date of the invoice, provide Elsevier with evidence of payment of the tax. If the Client fails to provide such evidence of payment within such 30 days, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge the full amount of any such tax to the Client and charge interest on the amount of such tax at the rate then prevailing for legal overdue payments. If the Client makes payment of the amount due to Elsevier in full and, as a result, the amount actually remitted to Elsevier exceeds the amount of tax withheld by the Client, Elsevier shall promptly return to the Client any such excess of amounts.

5. Price and terms of payment

If changes in the cost of goods/services provided need to be made, Elsevier reserves the right to charge the Client the new costs for the delivery, performance or services at the date of the invoice, in full, in accordance with the applicable terms and conditions of the TC. Any refund of sums advanced or paid under the TC will be at Elsevier’s discretion and shall not entitle the Client to any interest or compensation for any expense incurred by the Client in connection with the purchase or performance of the Products or Services.

6. Distribution

The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of the sale of the Products, exercising full control and sole bearing of all its losses from any unpaid amounts. Late payments and other breaches of the TC may result in price increases.

7. Audit

Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the charges have been agreed accordingly. The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations. Elsevier’s liability for any other loss imputable to it shall in any event be limited to the invoice value of the part of the TC to which the liability arises. To the maximum extent permitted by relevant laws Elsevier EXPRESSLY EXCLUDES ANY LIABILITY FOR BREACH OF ANY IMPLIED OR EXPRESS WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. NOTHING IN THIS CONTRACT SHALL LIMIT THE CLIENT’S EXISTING LEGAL OR STATUTORY RIGHTS WHERE IT IS ACTING AS A CONSUMER. The parties agree that the United Nations Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to this TC or the interpretation or enforcement thereof. The Client has entered into this TC in the knowledge that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the charges have been agreed accordingly. The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations.

8. Force majeure

If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, riot, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or any other act of the elements, accidents, power or telecommunications failure, customs or governmental restrictions or appropriation or any other cause beyond the control of the party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of such obligation and such inability to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The party subject to an event of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to comply as closely as possible with the provisions of this TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible. If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, riot, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or any other act of the elements, accidents, power or telecommunications failure, customs or governmental restrictions or appropriation or any other cause beyond the control of the party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of such obligation and such inability to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The party subject to an event of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to comply as closely as possible with the provisions of this TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible.

9. Advertising & Reprints

Advertising Copy is subject to acceptance by the Client as received at Elsevier’s electronic address as set out in the order acknowledgement or the Closing Date. Page counts and/or artwork dimensions are given as a guide and are subject to change. Where an order is placed for a minimum rate card, the Client acknowledges that the price charged by Elsevier will be calculated on the basis of the number of issues of the title ordered.

10. Cancellations & Returns

Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products and Services are intended to be at an Estimate and delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates are so specified, delivery/performance will be at the sole discretion of Elsevier. If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, riot, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or any other act of the elements, accidents, power or telecommunications failure, customs or governmental restrictions or appropriation or any other cause beyond the control of the party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of such obligation and such inability to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The party subject to an event of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to comply as closely as possible with the provisions of this TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible.

11. Audit

Client representations and warranties may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products and Services are intended to be at an Estimate and delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates are so specified, delivery/performance will be at the sole discretion of Elsevier.

12. No Auditing and Collection

When auditing is required, the Client shall provide Elsevier with all necessary information and assistance in respect of auditing. Elsevier reserves the right to charge the Client for all costs incurred in connection with auditing the Clients account. If the Client is a registered VAT business, it shall at all times, and on request, provide to Elsevier such evidence of tax registration as Elsevier may require for the purposes of this TC. The Client acknowledges that if it fails to provide such evidence of tax registration, the Client shall be responsible for any VAT chargeable on any Services provided to the Client. Products shall be at the Client’s own risk and cost of freight. Title to the Products shall remain with Elsevier until Full payment of the price for the Products has been made. Once the Product has been delivered, it is the property of the Client at the risk of the Client. The Client shall be responsible for ensuring that the Client has the right to distribute the Products.

13. Cancellations & Returns

If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, riot, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or any other act of the elements, accidents, power or telecommunications failure, customs or governmental restrictions or appropriation or any other cause beyond the control of the party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of such obligation and such inability to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The party subject to an event of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to comply as closely as possible with the provisions of this TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible.
