Seminars in Arthritis and Rheumatism

Overview

The Seminars in Arthritis and Rheumatism provides a broad interpretation of the field, including aspects of general medicine and orthopedics. Each bimonthly issue presents comprehensive review articles focusing on topics in rheumatology. It is of interest to rheumatologists, internal medicine specialists, orthopedic surgeons, immunologists and specialists in bone and marrow metabolism.

2. Applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). The use by the Client of any of Elsevier’s marketing material constitutes acceptance of the TC and an agreement to be bound by its terms. Anything printed or written elsewhere by Elsevier or any of its representatives will not alter or modify any of the provisions of the TC and any such terms will not apply. Without limitation, the terms of the TC shall prevail over any terms contained in any purchase order or other document or communication from the Client.

3. Offer and acceptance/ Description Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for all Client. For all Client orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Elsevier represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products or Services for Elsevier from its own account and that it is not acting on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Client acknowledges that representation of this warranty shall cause it to have no personal responsibility to Elsevier. Upon delivery of the Products and Services from Elsevier, including all original prototypes that have not previously been populated byElsevier, Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to compare with those of the Products and Services agreed by both the parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, printing processes, design and layout of address file, weights and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures are issued or published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described therein. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design character of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejection of the Product, as the case may be, even though they may be printed.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the prices for the Products and Services shall be those set out in Elsevier’s current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, insurance, tax, postal or other charges or expenses which shall be payable by the Client or its agent. These prices are exclusive of all taxes. Product prices are excluding current Value Added Tax (VAT) unless otherwise agreed in writing and shall be stated as exclusive of taxes. No VAT is included in the contract prices. Failure or delay by Elsevier in printing the Products or Services or delivering the same shall not be deemed a breach of the TC of any of its terms or conditions. None of the provisions of the TC and any non-fulfilment of any of its terms or conditions shall affect the continued validity of any provision (or prosecuting any breach) of the TC will not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.

5. Payment Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency of the payable invoice. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier may set and vary any credit limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and beneficial title in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until Elsevier has received in full (in cash or cleared funds) all sums due to it in respect of the Products and all other sums which are or will become due to Elsevier from the Client on account of the Products. The Client may not resell, sell or deal in any Product which is not fully paid for until full title and all other rights have been transferred to Elsevier. If any Product or Services is lost or destroyed, the Client shall be required to pay for the replacement thereof in full without delay. The Client shall immediately notify Elsevier of any circumstances which may affect its ability to pay for the Product or Services in full and shall observe all reasonable instructions of Elsevier in this respect. If the Client shall dispute any invoice or part of an invoice, the Client shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, but no later than the due date of such invoice, send full details of such dispute to Elsevier in writing. When the Client is required to pay for the Products and Services prior to delivery/performance and the Client disputes the amount of such payment then the Client shall not be liable for any tax or other charges or expenses which shall be payable by the Client to Elsevier in respect of the Products and Services in respect of any part thereof. In such event, the Client shall not be required to pay such additional charges or expenses in respect of such products and Services and the Client shall be entitled to retain the relevant Products and Services pending settlement of the dispute or such other action as Elsevier may decide.

7. Client representations and warranties The Client shall at all times during the term strictly comply with all applicable laws, codes, rules, regulations, standards and judicial or administrative order (jointly “Applicable Laws” or “Laws”) relevant to its duties, obligations and performance under this Agreement or any other agreement between Elsevier and the Client (the “BSL Supplies Code of Conduct” or “BSL Code”), in connection with the use of or access to Products and Services. The Client further represents and warrants that it is not acting on behalf of any other person or entity and is entitled to purchase and use the Products and Services purchased. The Client acknowledges that the above representations and warranties are material to the Agreement, and the failure to make or keep any of the same shall constitute a breach of the Agreement by the Client. It is hereby further agreed that the Client shall indemnify and hold Elsevier harmless against any and all claims, demands, losses, damages, costs or expenses of any kind or nature, whether in tort or contract, which arise out of or in connection with any violation of the above warranties by the Client.

8. Liability and claims The Client acknowledges that in no event shall Elsevier be liable for any of the following losses which may arise by reason of any breach of this TC or any implied warranty, condition or other term, any representation or any duty of any kind imposed on Elsevier by operation of law (j) loss of anticipated profits or expected future business; (k) damage to reputation or goodwill; (l) any damages, costs or expenses payable by Elsevier to any third party; (m) loss of any kind or order of contract; or (n) loss in any manner or form, without the specific prior written permission of Elsevier.

9. Force majeure If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, riots, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or any other action of the elements, accidents, power or telecommunications failure, customs delays, governmental restrictions or appropriation or other causes beyond the control of a party, such party in no event will be held liable for performances or services in any manner or form, without the specific prior written permission of Elsevier.

10. Advertising & Reprints Client shall be entitled to publish alternative Advertising Content in consultation with the Client or (ii) refund to Client a pro rata portion of the cost of the Advertising Content (if Client has paid Elsevier a flat fee). Elsevier will not be liable for the timely appearance or publication of the Advertising Content, and the Client agrees to indemnify Elsevier and to hold Elsevier harmless from any and all actions, claims, damages, losses, taxes, costs, expenses, or liabilities of any kind directly related to the promotion, demonstration or explanation of Products or Services or the Client’s failure to timely publish such Advertising Content.

11. Audit if the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, and to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates so specified, delivery/performance will be within a reasonable time. In no event shall Elsevier be liable for any delay or failure to perform any of its obligations under the TC due to any cause beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to acts of God, strikes, labor disputes, shortages, delays in transportation, material shortages, governmental controls, or acts of any government, state, county, city, district, or any other political subdivision, or any armed force of any country.

12. Compliance with laws The Client agrees that any Products or Services delivered by Elsevier to the Client will be used only for lawful business purposes and that Elsevier may rely on the Client’s representations and warranties. The Client acknowledges that such representations and warranties are material to the Agreement and the failure to make or keep any of the same shall constitute a breach of the Agreement by the Client. It is hereby further agreed that the Client shall indemnify and hold Elsevier harmless against any and all claims, demands, losses, damages, costs or expenses of any kind or nature, whether in tort or contract, which arise out of or in connection with any violation of the above warranties by the Client.

13. Cancellations & Returns The Client shall be required to pay for the Products and Services in full at the time of delivery or performance even though the Client may cancel the order for any reason. The Client agrees to indemnify Elsevier and to hold Elsevier harmless from any and all actions, claims, demands, losses, damages, costs or expenses of any kind or nature, whether in tort or contract, which arise out of or in connection with any violation of the above warranties by the Client.

14. Settlement of disputes The Client agrees to settle any dispute with Elsevier arising out of or in connection with the Agreement. The Client agrees that any dispute with Elsevier arising out of or in connection with the Agreement shall be settled by means of an arbitration in London, United Kingdom, before a panel of three arbitrators to be appointed in accordance with the rules of the LCBA (or another recognized arbitration scheme agreed in writing by the parties). The decision of the arbitrators shall be final and binding on the parties. Neither party shall be entitled to commence proceedings in any court of law in respect of any dispute with the other arising out of or in connection with the Agreement. All disputes shall be settled in accordance with the laws of the United Kingdom and of England.

15. Governing law and jurisdiction the remaining provisions of the TC and the remainder of such provision shall continue in full force and effect. Failure or delay by Elsevier in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision (or prosecuting any breach of any of its provisions) will not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.

16. Entire agreement All modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates so specified, delivery/performance will be within a reasonable time. In no event shall Elsevier be liable for any delay or failure to perform any of its obligations under the TC due to any cause beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to acts of God, strikes, labor disputes, shortages in transportation, material shortages, governmental controls, or acts of any government, state, county, city, district, or any other political subdivision, or any armed force of any country.
