Seminars in Arthritis and Rheumatism

Overview

The Seminars in Arthritis and Rheumatism provides a broad interpretation of the field, including aspects of general medicine and orthopedics. Each bimonthly issue presents comprehensive review articles focusing on topics in rheumatology. It is of interest to rheumatologists, internal medicine specialists, orthopedic surgeons, immunologists and specialists in bone and marrow metabolism.

ELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

1. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the "Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). If any provision of the TC is held to be invalid or unenforceable by a court of law, the invalid or unenforceable provision shall be deemed to be modified to the extent necessary to render it valid and enforceable. Failure or delay by Elsevier in exercising any right or provision under the TC and any non-performance by Elsevier shall not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.

2. Offer and acceptance

All offers and quotations by Elsevier are open for acceptance for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of the offer. All offers or quotations are subject to availability and Elsevier reserves the right to withdraw any offer at any time. The Client’s acceptance of an offer shall be subject to the Client’s order being accepted by Elsevier in writing. Any confirmation of acceptance by Elsevier to which the Client is bound will be sent to the Client’s last known address. For the avoidance of doubt, the Client’s order will be null and void if it is after the expiry of the thirty (30) days from the date of the offer.

3. Prices, taxes and currency

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, the prices for the Products and Services shall be those set out in Elsevier's current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, freight, insurance, stamp duty, tax or any other taxes, duties or costs, unless otherwise agreed in writing. The Client shall pay for the Products and Services in full upon delivery, in the currency quoted by Elsevier. If any payment is not paid within the agreed time, Elsevier reserves the right to charge interest on the outstanding balance at a rate that is at least equal to the banking rate as published in the Financial Times on the due date of such invoice, or as required by law.

4. Payment

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days from the date of invoice. Discounts given to the Client under the TC shall be deducted from the invoice amount. If the Client disputes any invoice, the Client shall pay the undisputed portion of the invoice and Elsevier shall have the right to suspend any further supply under the TC until the dispute is resolved. In the event of any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with any invoice, the Client shall notify Elsevier in writing within ten (10) days of receipt of the invoice.

5. Intellectual property rights

Copyright and other intellectual property rights to all Elsevier proposals, publications and other Products and or Services shall remain with Elsevier unless otherwise agreed in writing. The rights resigned by Elsevier are restricted to use solely by the Client and may not be assigned, transferred or sublicensed without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client is solely responsible for obtaining the necessary rights for the use of any third party material contained in the Products and Services. If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other action of the elements, public order, or government restrictions or appropriation or other causes beyond the control of any party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part any obligations set forth in the TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is thereby unable to perform, and such inability to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. Any party subject to an event of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to perform those obligations to the extent possible with the proviso of the TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible.

9. Advertising & a) Client is solely responsible for ensuring proposed advertising content is reviewed by Elsevier in electronic form (other than on Elsevier's media) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date"). Where paper is received late, Elsevier reserves the right to re-price the advertisement.

10. Who is entitled to receive a copy of all materials delivered to Elsevier. Elsevier shall take reasonable care but shall not be liable for accidental or deliberate injury or damage done. The Client is solely responsible for any legal liability arising out of or relating to any client advertisement or content (the "Advertising Content"). Client represents and warrants that (i) Client holds the necessary legal authority to permit the use of the Advertising Content by Elsevier for the purposes of the TC; (ii) the use, reproduction, distribution, or transmission of the Advertising Content will not violate any copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret, or other proprietary right or property; (iii) the use, reproduction, distribution, or transmission of the Advertising Content does not infringe on the intellectual property rights of any third party or the Client's legal or equitable ownership; (iv) the Client has all necessary consents to use and distribute the Advertising Content; and (v) the Client shall indemnify Elsevier against any and all claims, costs, damages and expenses arising out of or related to the Client's use, reproduction, distribution, or transmission of the Advertising Content. The Client shall be responsible for ensuring the accuracy of any advertising supplied by the Client. Elsevier may terminate this agreement at any time in the event of breach of this clause. Orders for advertisements must be cancelled in writing prior to the relevant ad insertion date.

11. Audit

Audit of invoices and accounts. Elsevier reserves the right to audit accounts and payments due under the TC without any deduction whether by way of set-off, counterclaim, discount, abatement or otherwise. Elsevier reserves the right to withdraw delivery of the Products and Services until all outstanding invoices have been paid in full. Elsevier reserves the right to stop delivery of any Products or Services if full payment for the Products or Services has not been made within the specified time. All communications shall be addressed to Elsevier at the address shown on the TC unless agreed otherwise in writing.

12. Data protection

The Client shall at all times during the term strictly comply with all applicable laws, codes, regulations, standards and judicial or administrative orders ("Jointly "Applicable Laws") or "Laws") relevant to its duties, obligations and performance under this Agreement. The Client shall use reasonable skills and performance and shall exercise all professional diligence and care in the use of the Products and Services. The Client shall not use the Products and Services in any manner that would be unlawful under applicable law, including without limitation, any laws governing the confidentiality of information and the protection of personal data. The Client shall ensure that all data processed in connection with the Client’s use of the Products and Services will be treated in accordance with Applicable Laws. The Client shall not use any Products or Services for any purpose other than that for which the Client is entitled to use such Products or Services under this Agreement.

13. Limitation of liability

The Client acknowledges that Elsevier shall not be liable for any losses, costs, damages or expenses arising out of or in connection with the use of the Products and Services, except for (i) any liability that Elsevier may be required to pay in connection with a claim by a third party in respect of personal injury or property damage caused by Elsevier's negligence; (ii) any liability that Elsevier may be required to pay in connection with a breach of any terms of this Agreement; (iii) any liability that Elsevier may be required to pay in connection with a claim by a third party in respect of the accuracy of any advertising supplied by the Client. Elsevier may terminate this agreement at any time in the event of breach of this clause. Orders for advertisements must be cancelled in writing prior to the relevant ad insertion date.

14. Disputes

Any disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of that same corporate domicile. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. If any provision of the TC is found by any court, tribunal or government agency to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable at any point in time, the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision shall be deemed to be modified to the extent necessary to render it valid and enforceable. Failure or delay by Elsevier in exercising any right or provision under the TC and any non-performance by Elsevier shall not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.
