ELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

2. Applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, Elsevier shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products and Services set out on the Invoice. The use of the plural in this TC shall include the singular and the use of the singular in this TC shall include the plural.

3. Execution and modification of the order Any modifications to the agreed product or service specification, budget, schedule or contract terms, as set out in the order acknowledgment, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services or modifies the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall add the same to the invoice and the Client shall pay the same.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, all payments shall be made in and by means of a method agreed by the双方. Except where otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, all payments shall be made in full and in accordance with the terms and conditions agreed at the time of purchase.

5. Payment Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be made within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency invoiced. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier may set and vary any credit limits for any Client account and be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and beneficial title in any final products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until Elsevier has received in full (a) all cleared funds (b) all amounts due to Elsevier for the Products and Services and (c) all other sums which are or may become due to Elsevier from the Client on account of any other matters.

6. Cancellations Where general terms and conditions of business are proposed by the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name and on behalf of the Client and shall be entitled to charge the Client for all work undertaken. The Client shall be required to pay any amount, together with any collection fees incurred by Elsevier. Where the Client wishes to dispute any invoice (or part), the Client shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, but not later than the due date of such invoice, send full details of such dispute to Elsevier in writing. The Client shall remain liable for full settlement of the TC until the dispute is resolved. Where the dispute is resolved in favour of the Client, Elsevier reserves the right to withhold payment of the Products or Services under the current order until any outstanding amounts are fully paid. Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any monies received by the Client, to clear any of the Client’s outstanding debts to Elsevier.

7. Force majeure The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client shall be solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full control and solely keeping all of its losses from any uncollected amounts. Delays or failures in obtaining such payments will not prevent Elsevier from making payments to the Client under the TC.

8. Liability and claims

8.1 Complaints: Elsevier shall be liable for any loss or damage incurred by the Client as a result of any breach of its obligations under this TC or any other TC, provided that such loss or damage was caused by Elsevier’s negligence or breach of this TC and that the Client has given Elsevier adequate notice of such breach within a reasonable time of its occurrence. Elsevier shall use reasonable care in handling any claim or complaint submitted to it in writing by the Client.

8.2 Limitation of Liability: Elsevier’s liability shall be limited to the greater of (a) the refund or re-supply of the Products and/or Services or (b) the payment of the reasonable cost of obtaining similar products and/or services elsewhere including the cost of any taxes, import duties or other charges incurred in so doing. In no event shall Elsevier be liable for any indirect or consequential loss or damage. Notwithstanding the above, Elsevier shall be liable for death or personal injury caused by its negligence or for any other loss or damage where Elsevier is liable by law.

9. Copyright and other intellectual property rights Copyright and other intellectual property rights to all Elsevier proposals, publications and other products or Services shall remain with Elsevier unless otherwise agreed by writing. The rights granted by Elsevier are non-exclusive and for the purpose expressly agreed upon. Any use other than the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client shall not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products. No part of the Elsevier proposals, publications or Products may be stored in any automated data file and/or reproduced, whether electronically, magnetically, by photography, recording or in any other manner or form, without the specific prior written permission of Elsevier.
