ESMO Gastrointestinal Oncology

Overview

ESMO Gastrointestinal Oncology is the European Society for Medical Oncology’s latest peer-reviewed open access journal, dedicated to publishing high-quality research and commenting on all aspects of the diagnosis, treatment and understanding of gastrointestinal cancers. The journal aims to publish experimental, translational, diagnostic and therapeutic research. Specific areas of interest include but are not limited to gastrointestinal cancer biology and epidemiology, prevention and early detection, advances in molecular, genetic and imaging diagnostics, therapeutic studies from pre-clinical to clinical (phase I-IV) with a focus on targeted and immunotherapy, patient-oriented studies, psychosocial aspects of disease, treatment of long-term morbidity and survivorship, palliative and supportive care, novel methods and clinical protocols. The journal welcomes original articles, reviews, mini reviews, editorials, research methods and clinical trial summaries, and correspondence. In addition, it provides in-depth commentaries from leading experts and engages in active debate on important topics via its pro and con discussion section. ESMO Gastrointestinal Oncology is committed to providing swift review and publication supported by our team of experienced international experts and key opinion leaders. The journal will provide essential reading for cancer researchers, clinician-scientists, clinicians with a focus gastrointestinal cancer, patient advocates and all health care professionals with a specific interest in gastrointestinal cancers. The journal rapidly disseminates the best innovative clinical and translational research and aims to improve the quality of education, prevention, diagnosis, treatment and patient care worldwide.

1. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). They supersede any previous written terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, “Elsevier” shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out on the relevant invoice/Order acknowledgement. The terms and conditions of sale of the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal representatives in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no one or more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Clients are advised that failure or delay by Elsevier in exercising or not exercising any provision of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to discontinue all receipt of Elsevier’s various online services and Elsevier products from Client, including all actual profits that have not previously been properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with any representations of the Products and Services agreed by both the parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, printing, processes, design, size and kind of address file, weights and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures are issued as published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design character of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejecting the order, as the case may be, or for altering the selling price.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description
Each order for Products and Services from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. For all Client orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s liability for fraudulent misrepresentation. Where Products are sold to the Client that contain third party product or software such a sale may be subject to additional licence terms.

3. Execution and modification of the order
Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget, schedule or set in the order acknowledgment, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performances of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and for time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates so specified, delivery/performance will be at Elsevier’s discretion.

4. Prices, taxes and currency
Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the prices for the Products and Services shall be set out in Elsevier’s current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, insurance, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall also be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other taxes imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as applicable. Where applicable, Client shall provide to Elsevier Client’s VIES registration number or other evidence of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing its order. If, under the laws of the territory in which Client is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on the amount payable by the Client to Elsevier under the TC, the Client shall deduct such tax from any payment made to Elsevier under the TC. Until the actual amount is actually remitted to Elsevier, the Client shall not be entitled to any discount, rebate or other allowance.

5. Payment
Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payment shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the date of invoice. Late payment shall be charged interest on a daily basis at a rate of 0.5% per annum. The Client shall not be entitled to assign any portion of the invoice. Failure to make payments in accordance with the TC will not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.

6. Distribution
The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client shall be solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sale of the Products, exercising full control and strictly keeping all of its losses from any such uncollected amounts. Delays or failures in obtaining such payment shall not affect the Client’s obligation to make payments to Elsevier under the TC.

7. Intellectual property
Copyright and other intellectual property rights to all Elsevier proposals, publications and other Services of Elsevier or Client shall remain with Elsevier unless otherwise agreed in writing. The rights granted by Elsevier are restricted to use solely by the Client and may not be assigned, transferred or sublicensed without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The rights granted by Elsevier are non-exclusive and for the purpose expressly agreed upon. Any other use shall require the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client shall not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products. No part of the Elsevier proposals, publications or Services may be stored in any automated data file and/or reproduced, whether electronically, mechanically, by photocopying, recording or in any other manner or form, without the specific prior written permission of Elsevier.

8. Liability and claims
TC shall not be liable for any of the following which loss or damage which arises from any breach of this TC or any implied warranty, condition or other term, any representation or any duty of any kind imposed on Elsevier by operation of law (whether express or implied), or by reason of any statutory requirement or any obligations and liabilities that are not consistent with Elsevier’s standards. In addition, Elsevier shall have the right, at any time, to remove any Content from Elsevier’s return policy applicable to the product at the time of the return. Details of such policies will be notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client shall be solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sale of the Products, exercising full control and strictly keeping all of its losses from any such uncollected amounts. Delays or failures in obtaining such payment shall not affect the Client’s obligation to make payments to Elsevier under the TC.

9. Force majeure
If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, riots, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other act of the elements, accidents, war or telecommunications failure, customs delays, governmental restrictions or appropriation or other causes beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part in any obligation set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is thereby unable to perform, and such inability to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The subject matter of this TC is in the knowledge that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the charges have been agreed accordingly. The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations.

10. Advertising & Reprints
Content or Client’s breach or alleged breach of any of the foregoing representations and warranties. Elsevier reserves the right to remove any Content that are not consistent with Elsevier’s standards. In addition, Elsevier shall have the right, at any time, to remove any Content from
