ESMO Gastrointestinal Oncology

Overview

ESMO Gastrointestinal Oncology is the European Society for Medical Oncology's latest peer-reviewed open access journal, dedicated to publishing high-quality research and commenting on all aspects of the diagnosis, treatment and understanding of gastrointestinal cancers. The journal aims to publish experimental, translational, diagnostic and therapeutic research. Specific areas of interest include but are not limited to gastrointestinal cancer biology and epidemiology, prevention and early detection, advances in molecular, genetic and imaging diagnostics, therapeutic studies from pre-clinical to clinical (phase I-IV) with a focus on targeted and immunotherapy, translational research, patient-oriented studies, psychosocial aspects of disease, treatment of long-term morbidity and survivorship, palliative and supportive care, novel methods and clinical protocols. The journal welcomes original articles, reviews, mini reviews, editorials, research methods and clinical trial summaries, and correspondence. In addition, it provides in-depth commentaries from leading experts and engages in active debate on important topics via its pro and con discussion section. ESMO Gastrointestinal Oncology is committed to providing swift review and publication supported by our team of experienced international experts and key opinion leaders. The journal will provide essential reading for cancer researchers, clinician-scientists, clinicians with a focus on gastrointestinal cancer, patient advocates and all health care professionals with a specific interest in gastrointestinal cancers. The journal rapidly disseminates the best innovative clinical and translational research and aims to improve the quality of education, prevention, diagnosis, treatment and patient care worldwide.

ELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

1. Applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (the “Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier offer accepts, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). If you do not agree with these terms and conditions, or if you are not authorized to accept these terms and conditions on behalf of the Client, you should not accept the offer and/or proposal of Elsevier. If you accept these terms and conditions, you represent and warrant that you are purchasing Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the Client is an agent, represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the purpose of providing Products and Services to its Client for their personal use.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description Each offer from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. For all Client orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Items. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier, the Client acknowledges and agrees that by accepting Elsevier’s offer to purchase the Products and Services from Elsevier, Elsevier is the sole and exclusive provider of space in the Products and Services. Any acceptance of any of these terms and conditions and any acceptance of any Products and Services shall constitute a written acknowledgement and acceptance of the TC in their entirety.

3. Execution and modification of the order Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget, or schedule as set out in the order acknowledgment, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall charge the Client the applicable fee. If the Client’s use of any advertised content is not in accordance with any applicable laws, regulations, rules, industry codes, or any rights of third parties, Elsevier may terminate the TC at any time and the Client shall reimburse Elsevier for all costs incurred.

4. Prices, taxes and currency Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing in the proposal for the Products and Services, Elsevier shall set out in Elsevier’s current price list (whether print or online). All such price lists shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, insurance, duties, taxes, rust, storage, and transport and insurance charges unless otherwise stated in writing, and shall also be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other levies imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as appropriate. Where applicable, Client shall provide to Elsevier Client’s VAT registration number or other evidence of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing its order. If, under the laws of the territory in which Elsevier is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on the purchases of products or services for which Elsevier is entitled to be paid at the reduced rate under the TC, Client agrees that Elsevier shall be entitled to deduct from the price of the Products and Services the amount actually withheld by Client. The Client shall make all such payments to the appropriate tax authorities. All financial transactions must be settled in the currency of the applicable Client. Elsevier shall be solely responsible for any complications, foreign exchange-related procedures in the said territory that are necessary to result in such payment.

5. Payment Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the date of invoice to the Client. Any payment made after such date, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on all amounts overdue at the rate of 8% per annum. The Client shall be liable for all costs, expenses, or charges incurred by Elsevier in connection with the collection of overdue accounts.

6. Distribution The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in such activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full credit control and solely bearing all of its own losses resulting from any uncollected amounts. Delay or failure in obtaining such collections shall not affect Elsevier’s obligation to make payments to Elsevier under the TC.

7. Intellectual property Copyright and other intellectual property rights in any Elsevier publications, proposals and other documents or Services shall remain with Elsevier unless otherwise stated in writing. The rights granted by Elsevier are restricted to use solely by the Client and may not be assigned, transferred or sublicensed without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client shall not, directly or indirectly, permit any third party to use any intellectual property rights in the Products.

8. Liability and claims TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY RELEVANT LAWS, ELSEVIER SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY OF THE FOLLOWING WHICH MAY ARISE BY REASON OF ANY BREACH OF THIS TC OR ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY, CONDITION OR OTHER TERM, ANY REPRESENTATION OR ANY FACTS OF WHICH ANY PERSON IMPOSED ON ELSEVIER BY THE OPERATOR OF LAW (EVEN IF ELSEVIER WAS NOT AWARE OF THEM) OR IS HELD TO BE LIABLE UNDER ANY STATUTE OR PART OF THE TC OR ITS OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES OR AGENTS IN RELATION TO THOSE MATTERS.

9. Force majeure Client is solely responsible for ensuring proposed advertising copy is received at Elsevier in accordance with the terms of this TC and as the Client may reasonably require. Client acknowledges that Elsevier will not be liable for any loss or damage caused to Elsevier as a result of any late delivery or failure to deliver the Products.

10. Advertising & Reprints except as otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing in the proposal for the Products and Services, Elsevier shall set out in Elsevier’s current price list the price for the actual volume at the end of the applicable year at a reduced discount and the Client shall pay Elsevier for the full cost of the advertisement. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to discontinue all distributions of Elsevier Products and Services from Client, including all actual products that have not previously been properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the requirements of the Products and Services agreed by both the parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, printing, processes, design, size and kind of address, weight, size of space and services. Any drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures as published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Elsevier Publishing editors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for retraction of any nature, as the case may be, rendering them void.

11. Audit Client’s use of any advertised content is not in accordance with any applicable laws, regulations, rules, industry codes, or any rights of third parties, Elsevier may terminate the TC at any time and the Client shall reimburse Elsevier for all costs incurred.

12. General The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of Elsevier’s company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that corporate domicile. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it to any person, firm or company. If any provision of the TC is found by any court, tribunal or administrative body to be invalid, void, voidable, illegal or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of the TC and the remainder of such provision shall continue in full force and effect. Failure or delay by Elsevier in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision (orbreach of any provision) of the TC shall not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.
