Editor-in-Chief
Y.S. Chandrashekhar, MD, FACC
Dr Chandrashekhar is a professor of medicine at the University of Minnesota. He has had a long association with the JACC family of journals having been the executive editor of JACC: Cardiovascular Imaging and an associate editor of the Journal of the American College of Cardiology.

He has been a physician investigator for over 20 years funded by federal agencies as well as other grant agencies. He continues to be an active member of multiple grant review committees including the National Institutes of Health (NIH) and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA).

Chandrashekhar recently completed his term as chair of the Cardiology Merit Review study section of the VA and is on the Scientific and Policy Advisory Committee (SPAC) of the World Heart Federation. He directs the cardiovascular imaging laboratory at the Veterans Affairs Medical Center, Minneapolis with clinical interests in multiple imaging modalities. He was also an author of the 2015 multimodality imaging guidelines in COCATS 4. He has published extensively in leading medical journals.

Societies & Affiliations
JACC: Cardiovascular Imaging is an official journal of the American College of Cardiology (ACC). ACC members interested in cardiovascular imaging receive access to the journal (print and online) as part of their College membership. By joining the College, cardiovascular professionals show their peers and patients their commitment to provide only the highest quality care to their patients. ACC membership provides all members of the cardiovascular care team access to education on the latest advances in the field and care guidelines through ACC.org, subscriptions to industry publications including JACC and its sister journals, point of care tools and more.

Market
Cardiologists and physicians with a secondary interest in cardiology.

JACC Advertising Policy

General

• Advertisements cannot be inconsistent with ACCF’s purposes to: provide educational information regarding cardiology and heart disease to cardiologists and the general public.

• All advertisements are expected to conform to ethical medical standards.

• All advertising shall comply with applicable federal and state laws, rules and regulations.

• Advertising that conveys through copy or pictures an impression of any negative stereotype of any persons is not acceptable.

• Advertisements must be truthful and nondeceptive. Advertisements are not acceptable if, taken as a whole, they are deceptive, even though every statement and picture may be technically accurate. Advertisements that are misleading because they omit or obscure a material fact are not acceptable.

• Advertisers must comply with high ethical standards in their respective industries.

• All Content that is an advertorial, infomercial, or other Content that is essentially an advertisement, shall be labeled as an advertisement so that readers can readily distinguish independent Content from paid-for Content.

• In placing ads throughout the Journals, special care will be taken to assure that ads related to products that are the specific focus of articles or editorial content will not be placed adjacent to that editorial content. While this cannot be guaranteed, every effort will be made to ensure that it does not happen.

Comparative Advertising

• Advertising that disparages a competitor or competing products or services is not acceptable.

Comparative advertising that is positive, and based upon the performance and capabilities of the advertiser’s own products and services is acceptable; provided that:

• No representations are inconsistent with these guidelines and prohibitions against false and deceptive advertising;

• The advertiser can substantiate all claims made about its own products and services and those to which they are compared.

• Comparative advertising should not focus on the negative aspects of a competitor’s products or services more than discussing its own positive qualities.

Editorial Style Advertising and/or Advertorials

• Headline and body copy typeface of editorial style advertisements must be clearly distinguishable from the basic Content typefaces of the Journals.

• Each page of a special advertising section must clearly and conspicuously marked as an advertisement.

Prohibited Advertisements

• Advertisements for the following products and/or services are not acceptable:

  • Cigarettes and other tobacco products;

  • Guns and self-defense weapons.
